Talking about the future

Before	Today	Later

Fill in the spaces with the words below.

Tomorrow	Yesterday	Now
----------	-----------	-----

Add below: Past/present/future

Example. I'm volunteering.	Present.
1. I'm in the shop.
2. Yesterday I looked for a job.
3. Next year I want to study in college.

Talking about the future- this is going to happen

I will —————> a formal way of talking about something that is further away.

I'm going to —————> this is present. How to talk about things that will be happening soon.

1. In February I will be going to London.
2. I'm going to study ESOL in college.
3. Tomorrow I'm going to an interview for a job.

Change the below from now to future.

Now	Future
Example. I'm at work.	I'm going to work.
I'm studying in college.
I'm in London.

Reading exercise

My name is Sarah. I live in Glasgow.

I'm studying accountancy at City of Glasgow College.

Today I have some free time so I'm studying because next week I have exams. I hope that I will do well in the exam.

I am learning how to drive and I hope I'll pass my test soon.

Next year I want to move to London and find a job there.

True  or False

1. Sarah lives in Glasgow.
2. Sarah can drive.
3. Sarah lives in London.
4. Sarah works as an accountant.
5. Sarah has exams at college next week.

Then circle when she is talking about the present and when she is talking about the future.

Learning how to talk about ourselves.

+ to be + verb -ing

Example.

I'm volunteering.

She's working.

Working	training	studying
I'm _____ in a shop. He's _____ at college. I'm _____ to be a security guard.

I will / I am 100%

I'd like/ I want / I hope 50%

I'm not 0%

Example.

I will go to London 100%

I want to go to London 50%

I'm not going to London 0%

Add the percentage %

1. I'd like to buy a car.
2. I'm learning to drive.
3. I'm not learning to drive at the moment.
4. I hope to study in university.
5. I'm working part time.
6. I want to volunteer.
